

Mercer County Community College
Holocaust/Genocide Resource Center
FOURTH Annual Student Writing Contest

OPEN TO MERCER COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDENTS

To honor the memory of longtime Mercer County College Professor, and founding director of the Mercer County Holocaust Genocide Resource Center, Saul Goldwasser, the Center and his family have initiated a writing contest for Mercer County Community College students with an award to the winner(s) of a small gift certificate.

Humanitarian activities of upstanders whom Professor Goldwasser exemplified are the theme that the students may write on in prose, poetry or script (play) while exploring any of the following topics:

- An Individual Rescuer Whom I Admire
- Why Become an Upstander
- Bullying Is Not a Game
- Diversity: Our Country's Secret of Success
- Raoul Wallenberg

A panel will judge the entries, and the winners will be announced throughout the college.

Entries are due by MAY 1, 2016 and should be no more than three typed pages submitted to:
